

Write Letters to the Editor

A letter to the editor is one of the most effective ways to express your support for choice.

Below are some tips and newspaper listings with all the contact information you need. If you would like to write to a publication not listed, please call our political organizer at 303-394-1973 ext. 15 and we will get you all necessary contact information.

✓ Tips:

- Type or write legibly.
- Be concise (200 words is a good rule of thumb).
- Clearly state your point.
- Where possible, refer to editorials or articles that the paper has printed.
- Provide a headline for your letter; otherwise, the paper may choose one that doesn't reflect the meaning.
- When sending your letter, you can send it by email, fax, or post. (Email is the best) Always include your contact information with your letter, including name, address, and day and night time phone numbers. The newspaper will not print your phone information but they need to call you to verify that the letter is yours before printing it. If you are emailing your letter, be sure to copy and paste it in-text and to not "attach" it to your email.
- Please also send us a copy of your letter to: NARAL Pro-Choice Colorado, 1905 Sherman, Ste 800, Denver, CO 80203, Attn: Political Organizer. You may also email it to politicalorganizer@prochoicecolorado.org or fax it to 303-388-1692. Tell us which newspaper(s) you send it to, and try to cut out a copy of the letter if you see that it gets printed.

✓ Where to send your letter:

- Send a copy of your letter to The Denver Post and/or The Rocky Mountain News.
- Also send it to local papers near you.
